Huong Dao Buddhist Temple
Huong Tu Loving Kindness Foundation
4717 East Rosedale Street
Fort Worth, TX 76105

Tarrant Area Food Bank is proud to offer this letter of support on behalf of Huong Dao Buddhist Temple and Huong Tu Loving Kindness Foundation, a partner whose work exemplifies compassion, service, and a deep commitment to others.

For several years, Huong Dao Buddhist Temple and Huong Tu Loving Kindness Foundation have been trusted collaborators in our mission to alleviate hunger. During the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, they helped distribute more than 1.3 million pounds of food—serving over 750 families each week. This extraordinary effort remains one of the most impactful partnerships in Tarrant Area Food Bank’s network.

In addition to hunger relief, Huong Dao Buddhist Temple and Huong Tu Loving Kindness Foundation has led efforts that extend far beyond food—organizing school supply drives, hosting health fairs, supporting international clean water access, and providing disaster relief across the globe.

The Huong Dao Buddhist Temple and Huong Tu Loving Kindness Foundation now leading a visionary initiative known as The Ancient Sacred Buddhist Scripture Stupas – Dhammacetiya Project - a monumental effort to construct 840 marble stupas across 14 acres in Fort Worth’s Stop Six neighborhood. Once completed, this site will become the largest Buddhist stone monument of its kind and a destination of international cultural significance. It will also serve as a place for education, reflection, and community connection—reinforcing values of peace, unity, and service.

At Tarrant Area Food Bank, we believe strong communities are built through collaboration and shared purpose. Huong Dao Buddhist Temple and Huong Tu Loving Kindness Foundation longstanding service reflects these ideals, and we are honored to support his efforts.

We encourage others to recognize and invest in this one-of-a-kind initiative and the remarkable leadership behind it.

Sincerely,
